EDUCATION

List all postsecondary education institutions, starting with the most recently attended. Most programs require one official transcript with grades from each institution attended toward receipt of bachelor's degree, which must be sent to the Office of Graduate Admission. The post-baccalaureate Pre-Medical Program and joint degree programs require two official copies of each transcript. If your current transcript does not show a bachelor's degree, please submit "In Progress" transcripts. Official transcripts must be sent to Mills when the degree is posted.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Review the department's supplemental application for program-specific statement of purpose guidelines.

General guidelines: Please provide a statement of purpose, typed and double spaced, that incorporates the following:

- A Brief intellectual autobiography describing the formation of your academic or artistic interests and present concerns.
- B Your reasons for wanting to study at Mills College.
- C A description of tentative plans for the use of your degree, certificate, or credential and the special areas of interest upon which your study would focus.

DEPARTMENTAL AID

Most programs have a small number of scholarships/assistantships they can offer to a select group of students. Please keep in mind, these offerings are highly competitive.

Please indicate your interest in the following sources of departmental aid:

- Departmental Assistantship
- Mills Scholarship

If a department has specific instructions or a separate aid application, it is enclosed in the supplemental application. Some departments generally do not award assistantships to entering students. Please visit www.mills.edu/graduate_students.php for more information.

FINANCIAL AID

Mills College does not require additional financial aid forms. The College recommends applicants submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by February 1 for fall admission and November 1 for spring admission.

For FAFSA questions, contact FAFSA directly at www.fafsa.gov.

APPLICATION FEE

A $50 nonrefundable application fee, payable to Mills College and drawn from a US bank as personal check or money order, must be included with application materials and sent to the Office of Graduate Admission. If you prefer to pay by credit card, you must submit an online application, which is available through the Mills College website. Cash is not accepted.
