Mills Financial Aid

The aid listed below is usually awarded to second-year students whose work and needs are known by the department. Please check below those kinds of aid for which you are interested. It is customary to award only one grant to each student, but the department needs to know which grants interest you.

- Tuition Scholarship partial tuition remission
- Assistantship tuition remission and stipend or full tuition remission in exchange for 15-plus hours a week

*Note: All stipends are taxable income.

If you are applying for an assistantship, please indicate in numerical order your first four preferences for work assignments.
(Note: Not all positions are available each year.)
