

MILLS

Greetings!

On behalf of our entire community, I welcome you to Mills College. As a new Mills student, you join a 157-year legacy of achievement. We are all pleased that you have chosen to pursue your graduate studies at Mills, and I look forward to meeting you personally in the coming weeks.

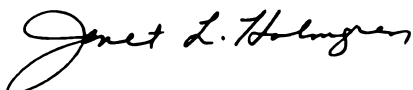

Mills is a special place, one devoted to empowering students through leadership, social responsibility, creativity, and experimentalism. Here you will find an environment that inspires intellectual discovery and personal growth. Our exceptional faculty and staff are committed to your success, and I encourage you to take advantage of our community and the accessibility of these amazing people.

Inside and outside the classroom, the Mills support system is extensive. I would like to take this opportunity to identify senior administrators and College Officers, who oversee the administrative and academic offices and who are available to assist you. They are:

LaDene Diamond, Vice President for Finance and Administration and Treasurer, 510.430.2125
David Gin, Assoc. Vice President for Student Finances & Administrative Services, 510.430.2000
Sandra Greer, Provost and Dean of the Faculty, 510.430.2096
Renée Jadushlever, Vice President for Operations, 510.430.2040
Carol Langlois, Administrative Dean of Graduate Recruitment and Enrollment, 510.430.3309
Therese Leone, Vice President and General Counsel, 510.430.2235
Joi Lewis, Dean of Student Life and Vice Provost, 510.430.3178
Michael Lopez, Director of Public Safety, 510.430.3103
Ramon Torrecilha, Executive Vice President, 510.430.2205

I also recommend that you take advantage of the many events and programs that are part of Student Orientation. Orientation activities will introduce you to life at Mills, enhance your classroom studies, and help you make personal connections with your fellow Mills students. I wish you an unparalleled academic experience at Mills and a year of personal and academic growth.

Sincerely,

Janet L. Holmgren
President
