

WTF?!

white transformative folk

INSTITUTE

WITH LINNEA DALE KELSEY

Is your friend “colorblind”?
Do you have white family who are against racism but dialogues usually turn into arguments?

This institute is for you!

Please RSVP! (see below)

This WTF?! Institute aims to engage and empower development of tools to white-identifying members of the Mills community to be agents of change regarding racism most particularly with white folks in mainly white spaces.

This institute is planned with white folks in mind who have actively been engaged in social justice—that said, everyone is invited and welcome to participate.

The purpose is to build community and dialogue in the white Mills community (and beyond) regarding agency, analyzing privilege, and showing up in a loving, caring way with our white cousins to further dialogue around racism instead of pushing folks away.

Dinner will be served. Please provide dietary restrictions in RSVP.

Date & Time:

Friday 02/19, 3-7pm

Location:

Mills Hall Rm 132
5000 MacArthur Blvd
Mills College, Oakland, CA

Sponsored By:

MILLS

student diversity programs

For More Info, Access Needs, and to RSVP—Please Contact:

Linnea Kelsey
510.430.3165
lkelsey@mills.edu