

Student Leadership & Mills of Color Award Nomination Form

Please select the award this nomination should be considered for:

Student Leadership Awards

- Outstanding Senior –graduating senior recognized for her involvement in and contribution to the Mills community.
- Helen Carroll Award –faculty, staff or student recognized for dedication to securing equal rights and combating discrimination of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people.
- Peg Dean Leadership Award – established by Alumna Edyth Chan to recognize an Asian-American student for demonstrated leadership on campus.
- Coleen Gragen Award – faculty, staff or student recognized for her dedication to advocacy for women.
- Christine LaFia Award –senior with outstanding service to the College.
- Shirley Weishaar Award –outstanding service to Division of Student Life.
- Palladium –honor society recognizes juniors and seniors who combine academic excellence with service to the College. Palladium requires a 3.0 GPA.

- Student Organization of the Year–This award is presented to an organization that has demonstrated campus leadership; collaboration with other student organizations, faculty, and staff; and devotion to educating its members and the broader community. This organization’s events, activities, and presence help support both the College’s and the ASMC’s mission.
- Student Organization Advisor of the Year–The Student Organization Advisor of the Year Award recognizes a campus advisor who dedicates their time and resources to the advancement of a club or organization. This person exemplifies the College mission, acts as a positive change agent, fosters high ideals, and provides sustained support to the organization they advise. The nominee offers support to students through mentorship, guidance, and advocacy. This nominee serves as an educator and role model for undergraduate students at Mills College.

Mills of Color Awards (MoCA)

Recognizes students of color that serve the community with outstanding achievement in the category of nomination. MoCA honors both individual accomplishments and creating change in the community.

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Freshwoman Leader of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Outstanding Athlete |
| <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Sophomore Leader of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Artist of the Year |
| <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Junior Leader of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA for Community Service |
| <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Senior Leader of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA for Community Activism |
| <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Graduate Leader of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Staff Member of the Year |
| <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Student Organization of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> MoCA Faculty Member of the Year |

Nomination Form:

If you wish to nominate one person for several awards, please complete a different form for each nomination.

Nominee's Name _____

Banner ID (if available): _____

Address (if available) _____

Phone _____ E-mail: _____

All nomination forms must be complete and accompanied by at least one letter of nomination from a Mills College student, faculty, or staff member. Letters of support from alumnae are encouraged. A maximum of five letters will be accepted for any one nomination.

Letters of nomination should address the following general criteria:

- Established record of leadership
- Service to Mills and the larger community
- Academic achievement
- Excellence in category of award

Selections will be made by a committee of students, staff, and faculty and announced at the Student Leadership and Mills of Color Awards on Thursday, May 8 from 3 – 5 pm.

Nominations are due by Monday, April 14 by 12:00 NOON at the front desk of the Cowell Building. Late submissions will not be considered.

DSL Staff Only Class Standing: _____ GPA: _____