

My Grad School Checklist

- The application (usually for the program in addition to the college/university)
- A personal statement
- Non-refundable application fee
- Financial Aid application
- Official college transcripts from every college attended
- Test scores (usually sent from the testing service)
- Letters of recommendation

Note: Many programs provide similar checklists specific to their application process on their website or with their application packet.

This is only a general checklist.