

Mills College Registration Agreement Fall 2010

Advisors:

This is an optional Registration Agreement. At your discretion, this form may be used for any or all of the following:

- o As a basic list of the agreed-upon courses between you and your advisee (for your advisee to use as a reference when registering online);
- o As a record-keeping tool for you;
- o As a formal agreement between you and your advisee;
- o As a registration "card" for students registering in the M Center.

Students:

Upon successfully registering in classes at Mills College, you are responsible for checking your schedule in myMILLS via the web portal, to make sure you are registered in the correct courses. In addition, you are responsible for payment of the tuition and fees generated by your registration. Your account balance is accessible via myMILLS through the web portal, in the event you do not receive a bill.
